Effective Date	April, 1 2026
Responsible Department	Niterra Co., Ltd. President's Group Business Management Dept.

General Provisions for All Group Rules

(Purpose)

Article 1. The purpose of these General Rules is to provide for the establishment, revision, and abolition, maintenance, and other basic matters incidental thereto of rules that rank higher than the rules of each Niterra Group company (hereinafter referred to as 'Group Rules'), and to ensure the systematic development and efficient management of such Group Rules.

(Scope)

Article 2. 1. Group Rules shall apply to each company in Niterra Group.
In these rules, Niterra Group refers to Niterra Co., Ltd. and companies that have the following relationships with Niterra Co., Ltd. (hereinafter referred to as ``Group Companies")

- (1) Companies where Niterra Co., Ltd. owns more than 50% of the voting shares including indirect holding;
- (2) Companies where Niterra Co., Ltd. owns 50% or less of the voting shares including indirect holding; and can practically have a significant effect on the financial affairs and business policy; or
- (3) Companies equivalent to those listed in the preceding paragraphs.

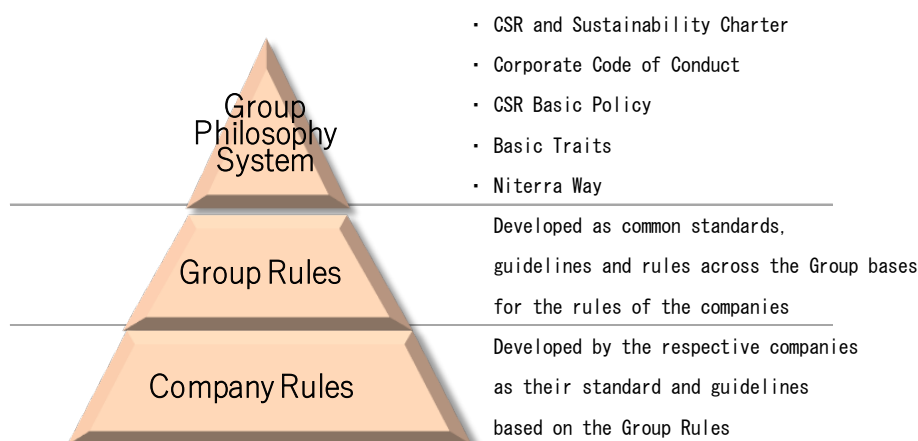

The companies that fall under (2) or (3) shall be designated by Strategic Management Department of Niterra Co., Ltd., which is the Supervisory Management Department, and will be managed in a separate table.

2. If a group company is a joint venture, the extent of Niterra Co., Ltd.'s involvement in management needs to be determined in light of the circumstances of the individual company. This rules will be applied by comprehensively taking into consideration the joint venture arrangements, etc. Companies that Group Rules apply to are stipulated in in the attached table.

(Definition)

Article 3.

1. The Group Rules shall be stipulated as governance standards, guidelines and common rules higher than those in each group company to establish and maintain a healthy and efficient management system with the Corporate Philosophy, CSR and Sustainability Charter, Corporate Code of Conduct, CSR Basic Policy, Basic Traits and Niterra Way as the common philosophy system across the Group.

2. Group Rules shall consist of "Rules" and "Circular Notice" with their respective functions defined as follows:

(1) Rules: Documents that prescribe fundamental matters concerning Group operations.

(2) Circular Notice: Documents issued to notify new guidelines or rules related to the contents of the Rules, or to ensure full awareness of existing guidelines or rules prescribed in the Rules.

3. The rules concerning Circular Notice are established as follows:

(1) The drafting of a Circular Notice may be conducted by the department in charge of the Rules related to the contents of said Circular Notice.

(2) Circular Notice shall be issued following deliberation and approval by the Rules Committee; provided, however, that application via the approval management system shall not be required.

(3) In principle, the contents of Circular Notice shall apply to the Group as a whole; however, they may be issued for specific companies depending on their importance or nature.

(4) When abolishing a Circular Notice, a new Circular Notices stating such abolition shall be issued. Furthermore, any abolished Circular Notice shall remain posted for six months following its abolition.

(5) When notifying new guidelines or rules via a Circular Notice, the following provisions shall be observed:

a. A Circular Notice may be issued only for guidelines or rules that are both urgent and important.

- b. In principle, such guidelines or rules shall be of a temporary nature. An expiration date shall be clearly specified within the Circular Notice, and the Circular Notice shall be abolished by said date.
- c. Notwithstanding the provisions of the preceding item, permanent new rules may be notified via a Circular Notice in cases where there are unavoidable reasons, such as high urgency and importance. In such cases, an expiration date must be clearly specified in the Circular Notice, on the condition that Rules reflecting the contents of the Circular Notice are issued by the time such expiration date is reached.
4. Each company shall establish its own rules in line with the purpose and content of Group Rules and in accordance with the laws, culture, custom, etc., of the respective countries, and shall work to familiarize its officers & employees with the Group management standards.
5. The Group Rules shall be prepared in Japanese and English.
